

Thursday, March 2, 2006
12:10 pm, Walter Hall

Thursdays at Noon
presents

Canadian Music Competitions Winner's Concert

Eldon Ng, piano

Sonata No.32 in C minor, Op.111

Ludwig van Beethoven

Maestoso - Allegro con brio ed appassionato

Arietta - Adagio molto semplice e cantabile

Gaspard de la nuit (Trois poèmes pour piano d'après Aloysius Bertrand)

Maurice Ravel

I. Ondine

II. Le gibet

III. Scarbo

Next on Thursdays at Noon

March 16, 2006

Mozart's Gran Partita

Mozart's Serenade in B-flat, K.361 "Gran Partita" conducted by Raffi Armenian.

95-2008 ①

Biography

Eldon Hang-Kay Ng was born in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. He is a graduate of the Claude Watson School for the Arts, junior and senior programs. Under the tutelage of Marietta Orlov, Eldon completed his Bachelor and Master Degrees in Piano Performance at the University of Toronto.

In March 1995, Eldon was the youngest of three Canadian pianists invited by the Ministry of Culture of the People's Republic of China to participate in a concert tour (recitals in Beijing, Shanghai, and Hong Kong.) At the Canadian Music Competitions, Eldon is a seven-time National Finalist, competing both as soloist and chamber musician. He was a prizewinner at the 2005 Shean Competition in Edmonton, the CMC 2004 Stepping Stones Competition, and the 2003 Montreal Symphony Orchestra Competition. At the Kiwanis Music Festival of Greater Toronto, he won the Senior Piano Rose Bowl and the President's Trophy in 1998, and placed first in the 2000 Alumni Competition. Eldon has performed as concerto soloist with Toronto Philharmonia, the U of T Symphony Orchestra, Cathedral Bluffs Symphony Orchestra, and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra.